

I.D Construction is one of the top leading construction companies in Cyprus, specializing in complex and highrise buildings, with a fast growing, dynamic and promising potential, currently employing over 200 skilled professionals.

We are currently looking to recruit an experienced Civil Project Engineer for our projects in Limassol area.

The ideal candidate must have relevant experience in the construction of medium and large-scale projects, combining both construction management expertise and project planning skills.

The role will be responsible for the management and coordination of construction projects, in close collaboration with the respective Project team.

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Participation in the implementation of the company's policy in the Construction sector.
- Overall supervision and responsibility for the timely and efficient execution of the Works under his supervision.
- Collaborate with other engineers' discipline involved in the project.
- Evaluate the progress of projects and take remedial measures when require.
- Responsible for organization, implementation and scheduling of the project activities
- Direct project from conception to completion.
- Review the project estimate costs.
- Ensure quality construction standards and the use of proper construction approved techniques.
- Overseeing compliance with building and health & safety regulations.

QUALIFICATIONS & EXPERIENCE:

- University Degree in Civil Engineering, Member of ETEK
- Working experience in the construction industry of at least 5 years
- Good technical knowledge of industry standards, products specification
- Computer knowledge, MS Office, Word, Excel, MS Project or/and Primavera, AutoCAD, and will be an advantage, a knowledge of Revit and BIM.
- Verbal and written communication skills in both Greek and English, project organization and communication skills. Knowledge of Russian language will be an advantage.
- Please note that all applications will be treated in strict confidence.

The successful candidates will be offered a good remuneration package and benefits, and personal career opportunities.

APPLICATIONS:

Applicants should forward a detailed CV to: hr@idconstruction.com.cy

I. Demourtsidis Construction Ltd
Att: Christos Kyprianou
Deputy Director
Tel.: +357 25 324212
Fax: +357 25 324211